

Table of Contents

Introduction	1	A Sample Timetable	43
The Nature Of Alternative Programs	2	Levels	45
Designing A Behavior Program	4	The Evaluation Sheet	46
Using This Resource	5	Special Considerations in Calculating the Weekly Levels	48
Chapter 1: Program Principles	7	Attendance	48
Self-Awareness	7	Behavior Withdrawal	48
The Classroom Philosophy	7	AWOL	49
Rewards	8	Suspension	49
Relevancy	9	Recording and Collecting Data for Evaluation and Reporting	50
Student-Teacher Relationships	9	Establishing A Behavior Evaluation Tool	51
Chapter 2: Developing The Program	10	Behavior Tracking Checklist	52
Admission Criteria and Student Population	10	Sample Report Card	55
Selecting The Location Based on Program Goals	15	Staying In The Program	56
Involvement of Service Agencies	18	Knowing The Consequences	56
Be Ready Checklist: Developing The Program	19	Consistency	56
		Behaviors Not Allowed	56
Chapter 3: Instruction	21	Tolerance Level	57
Service Models	21	Debriefing Times	57
Positive Instructional Strategies	22	Out Of The Program For The Day	57
Student-Teacher Relationships	23	Cumulative Time	57
Autonomy	23	Strategy To Return	57
Class Size	24	Parent/Guardian/Student Service Agreement	59
Clarity and Consistency	25	The Behavioral Intervention Plan	60
Forensic Behavior Analysis Assignment	27	Behavior Withdrawal Conditions	61
A Tool To Teach Students More Responsible Choices	27	Behavior Withdrawal Procedures	61
Forensic Behavior Analysis Assignment	28	Valued Connections	61
Individualizing Instruction To Motivate	29	Example of a Mentoring Partnership	62
Be Ready Checklist: The Program In Action	31	Community-Based Mentorship Ideas	63
		Community Mentorship/Partnership Program	65
Chapter 4: Providing Incentives	32	The Alternative Program For Secondary Students	66
Rewards as a Motivational Factor	32	The Overview	67
In Support of Rewards	33	Chapter 6	68
Sample Use of Rewards Appropriate to a High School Program	34	Action 1: Get Inside The Viewpoint Of The Student	68
Group Rewards	35	Action 2: Adapt To The Situation	68
Individual Awards	35	Action 3: Take Into Account Coexisting Issues	68
Random Award Incentives	36	Action 4: Believe, Believe, Believe	69
Be Ready Checklist: Using Rewards	38	Action 5: Put The Student In The “Driver’s Seat” To Teach The Obvious	69
		Action 6: If At First You Don’t Succeed ...	70
Chapter 5: A Sample Program	39	Action 7: Use Play and Drama	70
The Mission Statement and Goals	39	Action 8: Keep Out Of A Power Struggle	71
Daily Scheduling Considerations	41

Action 9: Use The 5 Step Rule For Offering Feedback	71	Appendix	81
Action 10: Watch The Words	71	Be Ready Checklist: Developing The Program	82
Action 11: Avoid Communication Roadblocks	72	Be Ready Checklist: The Program In Action	84
Action 12: Do Not Nag	73	Be Ready Checklist: Using Rewards	85
Action 13: When It Is Over, It Is Over	73	Mission Statement	86
Action 14: Make Conscious Decisions To Handle Misbehaviors	73	Establishing A Behavior Evaluation Tool	87
Action 15: Do Not Assume Responsibility For Student Problems	73	Behavior Tracking Checklist	88
Action 16: Do Not Be Defeated By A Bad Day	74	Parent/Guardian/Student Service Agreement	89
Action 17: Pick The Battles	74	The Behavioral Intervention Plan	90
Action 18: Recognize The Positive	75	Community Mentorship/Partnership Program	91
Action 19: Do Not Confuse Rewards And Bribes	76	The Alternative Program For Secondary Students	92
Action 20: Monitor Student Progress	76	Alternative Program	93
Action 21: Temper Aggression With Assertiveness	76	Evaluation Chart	94
Action 22: Balance The Making Of Rules	76	Daily Recording Sheet	95
Action 23: Set One Goal At A Time	77	Forensic Behavior Analysis Assignment	96
Action 24: Reframe The Criteria For Success	77	The Bibliography	97
Action 25: Be Immediate	77
Action 26: Let Students Become Teachers	78
Action 27: Use Rewards	78
Action 28: Own Your Program	78
Action 29: Make The Physical Environment Work	78
Action 30: Deal With Self-Esteem Issues	79
Action 31: Teach Students To Self-praise	79
Action 32: Teach About Consequences	80		